

H.E. Justice Isaac Jamu Mtambo, SC, JA. (Malawi) Member SADC – Tribunal (2008 -)

Born: Malawi, 4th of August 1946.

Education: Bachelor of Laws Degree, University of Malawi, Chancellor College, Zomba, Malawi (1969-74); Trained as a drafter of legislative and other legal instruments in the United Kingdom (UK)(1969-80).

Professional Experience: worked in the Public Service for over 32 years ;regular Member Judge of the SADC-Tribunal (2005); Chairman of the National Compensation Tribunal (not permanent) with the Constitutional mandate to entertain claims with respect to alleged criminal and civil liability of the government of Malawi which was in power between July 06, 1964 and May 18, 1994; Judge of the Malawi Supreme Court of Appeal, the final court of the land (2003 -); Senior Counsel (SC) (1997); Judge of the High Court of Malawi with unlimited jurisdiction (1992- 2003); Director of Public Prosecutions (DPP) a constitutional public office(1989-); Registrar and Administrator General (1984); Principal State Advocate (1980); Senior Legal Aid Advocate, Ministry of Justice, Malawi (1977); Legal Aid Advocate in the Department of Legal Aid(1974).

Member: Member of Malawi's court of Appeal, Highest Court in Malawi (2003); Member of the SADC-Tribunal (2003-)

Languages: Tumbuka; English